

Bay Area Injury Rehab Specialists is a multi-specialty medical practice consisting of a team of board certified and highly trained physicians, physical therapists, and massage therapists all practicing under one roof. Our specialists are members of the Association for the Advancement of Automotive Medicine and are highly trained to manage the patient's recovery, whatever the severity may be. Bay Area Injury Rehab Specialists has been treating auto accident injuries in the Tampa Bay community for over ten years. Our staff is devoted to the comprehensive and full-spectrum care of accident injury patients and has integrated a seamless environment where the patient receives the best care they deserve.

We have centers throughout the Tampa Bay area. Each of our facilities provides a full therapy department complete with passive therapy modalities, the most advanced physical therapy equipment for strengthening and stretching, and state of the art cervical and lumbar Med-X machines, as well as massage therapy. Med-X machines are used by professional athletes in training and are designed to track progress. For your convenience, we provide a wide range of medical equipment including canes, crutches, braces, bandaging and TENS units. Our trained physical therapists and massage therapists are available to guide and assist you through your recovery.